What am I?

I am a person with a whole set of skills aquired from long career in the gaming industry.

The best feeling in the world is when you have aquired a new skill and can effortlessly apply it.

At the end of the day, I feel great when a goal has been reached while having fun.

Leader

Listener

Nerd

My education and experience goes towards the artistic field both digital and classical, however when made an Art Manager I realized that helping others to excel in their work is more gratifying. I could inspire, guide and lead people to become better at their tasks using humor and knowledge from my art background.

Being productive IS fun! Prove me wrong! – Anna Roth

I am a person with too many hobbies and spend my days trying to become more than mediocre!

Also I am a crazy cat lady.
